THE SALT LAKE HERALD.

KEARNS WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE

Senior Senator Makes Announcement of Position.

DEVOTE SELF TO HIGH DUTY

TRY TO DISSEVER CHURCH AND STATE.

Senator Kearns has withdrawn from the race for re-election to the United States senate. Yesterday his paper, the Tribune, published the following editorial, under the heading, "The Attitude of Senator Kearns":

The Tribune is authorized by Senaor Kearns to state for him unequivocally that he is not now, nor will he be, during the session of the forthcoming Utah legislature, under any circumstances, a candidate for re-election to the United States senate.

"This statement he hopes will be taken as evidence of his intention to per-sonally, persistently and unselfishly advocate and advance, by all honorable means, the movement now on foot in Utah to purify the politics of the state from apostolic domination and to se-eure to the people of Utah the political freedom which of right should be

"Having said this for Senator Kearns. the Tribune desires to say for itself, that from this time henceforth so long ence and effort will be put forth to accomplish a dissolution of the relations existing between the church and the state in Utah, and

That until it shall be made apparent that the heads of the dominant church intend to comply in letter and spirit with their promises not to interfere in politics, and not to violate the laws of the land, solemnly made to obtain amnesty and statehood, the Tribune will support and uphold the party now in process of organization, which has for its purpose the redemption of Utah from ecclesiastical thralldom and the establishment here of an American

In assuming this position, it must be understood by all concerned that the Tribune distinctly disclaims any intention of interfering with or antagonizing the religious belief of any individual The right to worship God according to the dictates of conscience is a right guaranteed to every citizen of United States, and this right the Tribune holds sacred."

PAYSON'S CANDIDATE. George A. Peery Favored For County

. Treasurer.

Payson, Sept. II.—George A. Peery is still being talked of by the Democrats here for county treasurer, and they will no doubt go to the county convention at Provo next Thursday with the hope f placing him n the ticket for that position. He is regarded as a good man for the position and is spoken of as one who will pull many votes from the opposition. Some of his friends are working carriestly for his friends are working earnestly for im, and the delegation will no doubt go

"Atterbury"

The goods of the "Atterbury" made clothes are all steam shrunk twice before cutting, insuring a permanency in the cloth.

Cut by hand so as to follow all the kinds of the fashion.

Made inside and out entirely by hand, insuring an unexcellable finish and permanency of shape. The long man, the short man, the stout man, can also be fitted in these excellent clothes.
